

PRESS RELEASE
INDONESIAN VEHICLES IN BRATISLAVA, SLOVAKIA

Dance Sobrak was introduced in Bratislava in Slovakia

In a warm summer atmosphere, on one of the sides of the beautiful river Danube, during the events of the Bratislava Cultural and Information Center (BKIS), which organizes the summer cultural festivals in Bratislava, on 23 August 2017, from 17:00 to 18:30, eight Sobrak dancers in dominant and colorful costumes with distinctive hats. About 450 spectators attended the show.

After the musical and dance performances, the audience had the opportunity to taste Indonesian beverages and coffee, as well as fried rice noodles prepared in small portions that were offered for free. The audience also enthusiastically responded to the prepared quiz about Indonesia.

Ambassador of Indonesia to Slovakia Ms. Adiyatwidi Adiwoso expressed her thanks for the Slovaks' interest in Indonesian culture and art. According to her, the Indonesian Embassy in Slovakia always attends and supports every activity that will present Indonesian culture, culinary, tourism and the economy. She will be glad if this event strengthens the relations between the two nations and through which more people of Slovakia will know Indonesia. With active promotion, Indonesia will be more open to the market in Slovakia and will expand the network of Indonesian friends in different areas.

The cultural festival, which takes place on the square of one of the largest Slovak shopping centers Eurovea from July to September, is an annual event in Bratislava. The festival is attended by many countries and supported by local government of Slovakia as well as the private sector and relevant ministries and is the main partner of digital and print media in Slovakia.

The dance and music team consists of artists who created the Indonesian Embassy in Bratislava under the name "Smara Gita Art" and is composed of Slovaks, embassy staff and Indonesian people living in Slovakia.

(Unofficial Translation)